MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE EX PARTE APPEAL BRIEF

Appellant, Banco de Credito del Peru (“Appellant”), by and through its undersigned counsel and pursuant to TBMP §1203.02(d), hereby moves for an extension of thirty (30) days, until January 20, 2025, to file its appeal brief, and in support states:

1. Appellant’s ex parte appeal brief is due on or before Sunday, December 21, 2024. Appellant seeks a thirty (30) day extension of time, until January 20, 2025, to file its ex parte appeal brief.
2. During the last seven (7) weeks, the undersigned’s workload increased due to several matters, including a patent infringement trial that had been slated to being during the two-week trial period beginning November 18, 2024. During that time, the undersigned had also engaged with counsel for the owner of the trademark registration cited against the Owner/Appellant to complete negotiation of a co-existence agreement between the parties. The parties completed such negotiations and have now circulated an executable copy of the co-existence agreement. Because of the Christmas, Hanukkah and New Year's holidays, it has been difficult to get the agreement signed by the persons in authority to sign on behalf of the entities involved. Appellant believes that the co-existence agreement will likely render the refusal moot and respectfully submits that a request for reconsideration in view of the co-existence agreement would benefit Appellant as well as the U.S. Patent & Trademark Office.

3. Appellant respectfully asks the Board for an extension of time to submit its appeal brief.

4. An extension of time would not prejudice any party, nor the administration of justice in this matter.

WHEREFORE, Appellant respectfully requests that the Board grant this motion and extend the deadline for Appellant to file its appeal brief by thirty (30) days, until January 20, 2025.

Dated: December 23, 2024

Respectfully submitted,
