Civil Action No. 2:17-cv-0516-JRG
Consolidated Case

APPLE INC.'S FINAL ELECTION OF PRIOR ART REFERENCES

Defendant Apple Inc. (“Apple”) serves its Final Election of Prior Art References, as set forth below, pursuant to the Court’s Sixth Amended Docket Control Order (Dkt. No. 193) and in view of Plaintiff AGIS Software Development, LLC’s (“AGIS”) August 15, 2018 Final Election of Asserted Claims. Apple expressly reserves its right to assert at or before trial that the patents-in-suit are invalid for additional reasons, including (without limitation) under 35 U.S.C. §§ 101 and/or 112. Apple further expressly reserves its rights to assert additional prior art references uncovered during the course of fact discovery (including, but not limited to, any references based upon discovery from third parties).

In addition, as Apple explained in its December 1, 2017 Patent Rule 3-3 Invalidity Contentions and April 16, 2018 Amended Patent Rule 3-3 Invalidity Contentions, U.S. Pat. Nos. 9,408,055; 9,445,251; 9,467,838; and 9,749,829 are entitled to a priority date no earlier than October 31, 2014. Apple expressly reserves its right to assert at trial that, under that priority date, to the extent that any of the accused Apple products are determined to infringe any claim of any of those asserted patents, those accused Apple products would also render the claims invalid under at least AIA 35 U.S.C. § 102(a)(1) because they were each in public use and on sale or available for download before the effective filing date of those patents. Apple further reserves the right to assert at trial that, under that priority date, earlier AGIS patents and/or applications, including (without limitation) U.S. Patent No. 7,630,724, would also render the claims invalid under at least AIA 35 U.S.C. § 102(a)(1) because they were publicly available before the effective filing date of the those asserted patents.
