3 Q. So just to confirm, you're not relying on
4 anything about the CDA product in the context of
5 your report; right?

6 A. The CDA product, as you defined it here,
7 clearly says that it was built by General Dynamics
8 Decision Systems. General Dynamics Decision Systems
9 makes the CDA. That's not our product.

10 Q. So I'd like to ask you about -- going back
11 to how you implemented this distributed environment
12 for FBCB2 where you had different devices that could 13 fill the role of what you call the server. Okay?

14 A. Uh-huh, okay.

15 Q. And so is it fair to say that any device
16 running FBCB2 that was communicating with the server
17 had to know the IP address of that server? Is that
18 fair? Let me withdraw the question. I could ask it
19 a different way.

20 So in the context of a server in the FBCB2
21 system, let's assume that one unit is designated as 22 the server. Call it unit one. Okay?

23 A. Uh-huh.

24 Q. So you follow me so far; right?

25 A. Uh-huh.
