AMENDED JOINT MOTION TO AMEND DOCKET CONTROL ORDER

Plaintiff AGIS Software Development, LLC and Defendants T-Mobile USA, Inc., T-Mobile US, Inc., Lyft, Inc., and Uber Technologies, Inc., d/b/a Uber (collectively, the “Parties”) file this amended joint motion to amend the docket control order and show the Court as follows:

The Parties respectfully request a short of extension of certain deadlines in the Court’s Docket Control Order (Dkt. 118). Good cause exists because the Parties require additional time to complete fact and expert discovery given the number of parties and large number of depositions that need to occur, including expert depositions. The Parties also request a short extension of the deadlines to exchange expert disclosures and dispositive motion briefing to account for any extension of fact and expert discovery.

Accordingly, the Parties respectfully request that the Court amend its Docket Control Order to extend the deadlines as set forth in the attached proposed order. The Parties inadvertently included the original Markman date in the previously proposed order. This has been corrected in the attached proposed order.
