

witness regarding unique identifiers. Uber submits that it has good cause for its amended invalidity contentions because they are responsive to AGIS's supplemental infringement contentions. The Parties submit that good cause exists for these supplemental and amended contentions.

The Parties have met and conferred and agree that each should be permitted under Local Rule 3-6(b) to supplement its contentions. The Parties further agree that each party reserves all other rights regarding the other party's contentions, including for example the right to oppose any future motions for leave to amend the contentions. The Parties further agree that nothing in this Joint Motion should be construed as a waiver of challenges to the substantive merit of the other party's contentions, including with respect to Uber's Motion to Strike Plaintiff's First Amended Disclosure of Asserted Claims and Infringement Contentions (Dkt. 172). In light of the foregoing, the parties respectfully request that the Court grant this Joint Motion for Leave to Amend. A proposed order is attached.
