

Exhibit 7

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS
MARSHALL DIVISION

ADVANCED MICRO DEVICES, INC., ET
AL.,

Plaintiffs,

v.

REALTEK SEMICONDUCTOR CORP., ET
AL.,

Defendants.

Case No.: 2:22-cv-00134--JRG-RSP

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

AFFIDAVIT OF SERVICE UPON DEFENDANT REALTEK

Comes now CHEN, LIANG-CHIH, who, upon oath, states the following:

1. I am CHEN, LIANG-CHIH, a Senior Paralegal employed by Tai E International Patent & Law Office (“TAIE”) (台一國際法律事務所), a law firm in Taipei, Taiwan, and am authorized to serve process in Taiwan.

2. On Friday, June 24, 2022, I was instructed by TAIE, to serve upon defendant Realtek Semiconductor Corp. (“Realtek”), on behalf of the plaintiffs (Advanced Micro Devices, Inc. (“AMD”) and ATI Technologies ULC (“ATI”)) the following documents pertaining to the case at bar:

1. Summons in a Civil Action
2. Complaint for Patent Infringement
3. Civil Cover Sheet
4. Rule 7.1 Disclosure Statement

5. Report on Filing (35 U.S.C. § 290)

3. Realtek is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of Taiwan with its headquarters at address: No. 2, Innovation Road II, Hsinchu Science Park, Hsinchu 300, Taiwan.

4. On Tuesday, June 28 2022 at 14:10, I personally traveled to that address with the intention of effecting service upon Realtek Semiconductor Corporation the aforementioned documents. The signage on and around the building included Realtek's name and logo.

5. Upon visiting Realtek, Realtek's security guard directed me to Realtek's mailroom. A Realtek mailroom clerk then took my package and inspected the envelope. After inspecting the envelope, the mailroom clerk inquired about the nature of the documents and I informed the mailroom clerk that these were legal documents and I was entrusted by a U.S. law firm to deliver these documents. The mailroom clerk then made a phone call and replied to me that Realtek refused to receive the documents. Despite my further explanation that these documents included complaints filed by AMD and ATI in the U.S. District Court, I was asked to leave the building by the Realtek security guard. The guard then escorted me to leave the building.

6. I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Respectfully Submitted,

Chen Liang Chih
