Obtaining Evidence in Civil and Commercial Matters

The Republic of Korea is a party to the Hague Convention on the Taking of Evidence Abroad in Civil and Commercial Matters↗. See the Hague Evidence Convention Model Letters of Request↗ for guidance on preparation of the letter of request. Requests for the compulsion of evidence under the Hague Evidence Convention are transmitted directly from the requesting court or person in the United States to the Korean Central Authority↗ and do not require transmittal via diplomatic channels. Letters of Request and accompanying documents should be prepared in duplicate and translated into Korean. See the Republic of Korea's Declarations and Reservations regarding the Hague Evidence Convention↗. See also the Republic of Korea's response to the 2008 Hague Conference questionnaire on the practical operation of the Hague Evidence Convention↗.

Requests from the Republic of Korea to Obtain Evidence in the United States: The U.S. Central Authority for the Hague Evidence Convention↗ is the Office of International Judicial Assistance, Civil Division, Department of Justice, 1100 L Street N.W., Room 8102, Washington, D.C. 20530.
