Howard,

Thanks for confirming.

The last discussion the parties had about validity narrowing was your email from June 25, 2018 when you informed us that you all "are still trying to determine validity narrowing." See attached.

Also, can you please confirm that on the '193, ZTE has now dropped the following two combinations (seem to be from the slide deck):

1. Wheatley + Mucke + IS-95
2. Wheatley + Mucke + IS-95 + Kim + Weiland

Best,
Saqib

Howard,

We have not received the demonstratives for the invalidity of the '491 and '695 patents. Please confirm that ZTE has dropped their invalidity arguments against the '491 and '695 Patents.
