Subject: meet and confer re asserted claims and prior art

Importance: High

Howard,

In order to finalize the amended pretrial order today, we propose a meet and confer to finally determine which prior art you plan to assert—including identifying the combinations for the 193—and which claims we plan to assert. Are you available at 2 pm today?

It may be worthwhile to conduct this in person now that your team is in Texarkana. We have space downtown not far from the courthouse if that works.

If you've had time to review the jury instructions and the deposition designations, we can meet and confer on those issues as well.

Thanks,

Kfir B. Levy
