CIVIL ACTION NO. 5:19-CV-00036-RWS

ORDER

Apple has moved to compel Maxell to provide complete interrogatory responses. Docket No. 224. The Court’s Standing Order only allows Maxell to file a response to Apple’s motion—i.e., Apple is not afforded an opportunity to reply. Moreover, under the standing order, the parties must meet and confer within 72 hours of the Court setting Apple’s motion for a hearing and promptly notify the Court of the results of that meeting by filing a joint report of no more than two pages. Given the current climate, including General Order 20-03, it is ORDERED that Apple may file a reply brief in support of its motion to compel within seven days of this order. It is further

ORDERED that the parties must meet and confer within 72 hours of service of Apple’s reply or within 10 days of this order, whichever is sooner. It is finally ORDERED the parties shall promptly notify the Court of the result of that meeting by filing a joint report of no more than two pages.

So ORDERED and SIGNED this 30th day of March, 2020.
