In the Motion, the Parties seek leave to take the below-identified depositions after the close of fact discovery. Having considered the Motion, the Court is of the opinion that it should be and hereby is GRANTED-IN-PART with regard to the below-identified depositions. It is therefore ORDERED that the Parties are permitted leave to take the following depositions:

- Tony Blevins (April 23, 2020);
- Jayna Whitt (April 24, 2020);
- Dawei Zhang (a date on or before May 1, 2020);

In the Motion, the Parties also seek leave to conduct the deposition of Christian Faber (“Mr. Faber”) on “a mutually convenient date before trial when he can safely travel,” as well as to conduct the deposition of Brevet Capital Management, LLC (“Brevet Capital”) “on a date before trial convenient for the parties and for Brevet.” (Dkt. No. 135 at 2.) With regard to the depositions of Mr. Faber and Brevet Capital, the Court is of the opinion that the Motion should be and hereby is DENIED-IN-PART. The Parties are free to re-urge their requests for leave with regards to these depositions in the future when they are able to present the Court with more details as to when and where the depositions will be conducted.

So ORDERED and SIGNED this 28th day of April, 2020.
