within this District, which include the making, importation, sell, and/or offering for sale of Infringing Products as discussed below. Each act of Defendants' directly or indirectly infringing conduct in this District gives rise to proper venue.

9. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendants. Defendants have conducted and do conduct business within the State of Texas. Defendants, directly or through intermediaries (including distributors, retailers, and others), ship, distribute, offer for sale, sell, and advertise products containing semiconductors that infringe the patent claims involved in this action. Such conduct occurs in the United States, the State of Texas, and the Eastern District of Texas. Defendants have purposefully and voluntarily placed one or more of their semiconductor products into the stream of commerce with the expectation that it will be purchased by consumers in the United States, the State of Texas, and the Eastern District of Texas. The Infringing Products have been and continue to be imported into and purchased by consumers in the Eastern District of Texas. Defendants have committed the tort of patent infringement within the United States, the State of Texas and, more particularly, within the Eastern District of Texas.

10. Defendants conduct business and have committed acts of patent infringement and/or have induced acts of patent infringement by others in this district, the State of Texas, and elsewhere in the United States. Upon information and belief, Defendants maintain offices in Texas, in at least Austin and Dallas, where Defendants develop, distribute, and market the Infringing Products.

11. DSS maintains offices in the Eastern District of Texas, where employees are engaged in marketing and engineering efforts directed toward developing products based on intellectual property, including but not limited, that at issue in this case.

III. GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

12. On August 31, 2004, the United States Patent and Trademark Office duly and legally issued U.S. Patent No. 6,784,552 (“the ’552 Patent”), titled “Structure Having Reduced Lateral Plug Erosion,” to James E. Nulty and Christopher J. Petti. A true and correct copy of the ’552 Patent is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

13. Plaintiff is the owner by assignment of the ’552 Patent and owns all rights, title, and interest in and to the ’552 Patent, including all rights to sue and recover for past and future infringement.

14. Unless enjoined by this Court, SK Hynix will continue to infringe the ’552 Patent.

IV. SK HYNIX’S INFRINGEMENT OF THE ’552 PATENT

15. Defendants have infringed and continue to infringe, directly, and/or through the inducement of others, the claimed apparatus of the ’552 Patent by making, using, importing, exporting, selling, and/or offering for sale the Infringing Products.

16. Plaintiff has been damaged as a result of Defendants’ infringing conduct. Defendants are, therefore, liable to Plaintiff in an amount that adequately compensates Plaintiff for Defendants’ infringement, which, by law, cannot be less than a reasonable royalty, together with interest and costs as fixed by this Court under 35 U.S.C. § 284.

17. Defendants, directly or through intermediaries, are liable for infringing one or more claims of the ’552 Patent.

18. Defendants have failed to obtain permission from DSS to make, use, offer to sell, sell, or import products embodying the claims in the ’552 Patent.

19. SK Hynix has been and is now directly infringing the ’552 Patent by making, using, selling, offering for sale, importing into the United States, and/or exporting the Infringing Products, or consumer products that contain Infringing Products, that structurally embody one or more claims of the '552 Patent. SK Hynix also has been and now is inducing others, such as manufacturers and/or retailers of products incorporating SK Hynix's infringing semiconductors, to directly infringe one or more claims of the '552 Patent by using, selling, offering for sale, and/or importing products made by processes embodied in, or that otherwise embody, one or more claims of the '552 Patent.

20. SK Hynix directly or through intermediaries has infringed and continues to infringe (literally and/or under the doctrine of equivalents) one or more claims of the '552 Patent by making, using, making available for another's use, offering to license or licensing in the United States, selling or offering to sell, and/or importing the Infringing Products. By way of example only, SK Hynix has directly infringed and continues to infringe, in addition to other claims, at least claim 1 of the '552 Patent by making, using, selling, and/or offering to sell in the United States, without DSS's authority, DRAM products, such as the H9TKNNNBPDAR-ARNGH, all made via a 26 nanometer process (the "Infringing Products"). SK Hynix's infringing activities include importing, offering for sale, and/or selling the Infringing Products in the United States. SK Hynix also infringes the '552 Patent by selling and offering to sell the Infringing Products directly and via sales representatives, distributors, and resellers to consumers, businesses, distributors, and resellers. SK Hynix's infringement of the '552 Patent has caused substantial damage to DSS. SK Hynix's infringing activities violate at least 35 U.S.C. § 271(a).

21. SK Hynix directly or through intermediaries has and continues to induce infringement (literally and/or under the doctrine of equivalents) of one or more claims of the '552 Patent. SK Hynix's deliberate actions include, but are not limited to, actively marketing to,
