PLAINTIFF MOBILEMEDIA IDEAS LLC'S REPORT REGARDING PATENTS

On August 16, 2013, the Court entered an Order [402] denying Plaintiff MobileMedia Ideas LLC's ("MobileMedia's") Motion to Sever or Stay [369] and allowing Defendants Research in Motion Limited and Research in Motion Corporation's (collectively, "RIM's") motion to exceed the summary judgment page limit based on the number of asserted patents [401]. The Court also directed MobileMedia to inform the Court which patents MobileMedia intends to assert at trial, and stated that it would dismiss with prejudice any claims based on any patents not asserted or previously stayed. Accordingly, pursuant to the Court's Order, MobileMedia states as follows:

1. MobileMedia intends to assert the following patents at trial: U.S. Patent Nos. Re. 39,231; 5,737,394; 6,070,068; 6,389,301; and 6,871,048.

2. Application of the Court's Order [402] would result in the dismissal with prejudice of MobileMedia's claims for infringement from its Amended Complaint [164] with respect to U.S. Patent Nos. 6,446,080 ("the '080 patent"), 7,349,012 ("the '012 patent"), and 5,490,170 ("the '170 patent"), together with the dismissal without prejudice of the corresponding counterclaims of non-infringement, invalidity, and unenforceability asserted against the '080,

'012 and '170 patents in RIM's Answer to MobileMedia's Amended Complaint and Counterclaims [178].¹

3. A proposed form of order is attached hereto.
