	§
BRYAN PEYTON RODGERS	§	HARRIS COUNTY, TEXAS

STATE'S MOTION TO DENY BAIL FOR VIOLATION OF A COURT ORDER IN A FAMILY VIOLENCE CASE

COMES NOW the State of Texas, by and through its Assistant District Attorney, and moves this Honorable Court to deny bail for BRYAN PEYTON RODGERS, hereinafter referred to as Defendant, who stands charged for Violation of Protective Order issued in a family violence case and in support thereof would show the following:

1. Tex. Code Crim. Proc. Art. 17.152 permits a person who commits an offense under Penal Code Section 25.07 [Violation of Court Order], other than an offense related to a violation of a condition of bond set in a family violence case, may be taken into custody and, pending trial or other court proceedings, denied release on bail if following a hearing a judge or magistrate determines by a preponderance of the evidence that the person committed the offense.

2. On or about May 14, 2020, Defendant was arrested for Violation of Court Order due to having contact with the Sonya Pace, the protected individual listed in the Order for Pretrial Supervision and Bond Conditions (hereafter referred to as the Order). On April 15, 2020, in cause #1671411, in the 230th District Court, Harris County, Texas, the Court issued a the Order against Defendant, which remains in effect for the duration of the case, specifically prohibited from contacting Sonya Pace.

3. Defendant is currently on bond for:

Assault – Continuous Family Violence, cause #1671411, in the 230th District Court, Harris County, Texas, with the Sonya Pace, listed as the Complainant.

4. Defendant presents a danger to Sonya Pace, who is the protected individual in the Order and lives at the protected residence listed in the Order. The State requests that the Court deny bail as he is likely to commit family violence in the future.

WHEREFORE PREMISES CONSIDERED, the State of Texas prays that after a hearing, the Court will grant this Motion To Deny Bail for Defendant.
