§ Jury Trial Demanded

PLAINTIFF’S MOTION FOR ISSUANCE OF REQUEST FOR INTERNATIONAL JUDICIAL ASSISTANCE

Plaintiff Bandspeed LLC (“Bandspeed” or “Plaintiff”) files this Motion for Request for International Judicial Assistance upon Realtek Semiconductor Corporation (“Realtek” or “Defendant”).

Bandspeed (“Bandspeed”) filed its Complaint against Realtek for infringement of United States Patent Nos. 7,027,418 (“the ’418 Patent”), 7,477,624 (“the ’624 Patent”), 7,570,614 (“the ’614 patent”), 7,903,608 (“the ’608 Patent”), 8,542,643 (“the ’643 Patent), 8,873,500 (“the ’500 Patent), 9,379,769 (“the ’769 Patent), and 9,883,520 (“the ’520 Patent) (collectively, the “Patents-in-Suit”) on July 20, 2020. Bandspeed alleges that Realtek manufactures, provides, sells, uses, imports, supplies, offers for sale, and/or distributes Infringing Products, such as integrated circuits, or a set of integrated circuits for wireless communications devices, that use, practice, and/or comply with the Bluetooth Core Specification Version 2.0+EDR or higher, and other products that operate in a reasonably similar manner (“Infringing Bluetooth Classic Products”) as well as Infringing Products that use, practice and/or comply with the Bluetooth low energy protocol as described in Version 4.0 and any later version of the Bluetooth Core Specification, and other products that operate in a reasonably similar manner (“Infringing Bluetooth LE Products”).

Bandspeed served Realtek Semiconductor Corporation through the Texas Secretary of State on July 24, 2020. Bandspeed also requested Realtek to waive service under Fed. R. Civ. P. by letter received by Realtek on August 31, 2020. Despite these efforts, Realtek has not responded to the Complaint. On September 10, 2020, counsel for Realtek contacted counsel for Bandspeed and stated that Realtek will not respond to Bandspeed's Complaint until it is served through a Request for Judicial Assistance. Use of a Request for International Judicial Assistance is an acceptable procedure for service of process under the laws of Taiwan. Accordingly, Bandspeed hereby requests this Court to issue a Request for International Judicial Assistance for service of process on Realtek. A draft Request is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

Dated: September 14, 2020.

Respectfully submitted,
