The Court requests that the witness be placed under oath, subject to questioning by counsel for the parties to the above-captioned matters, and that a verbatim transcript of the testimony be taken.

II. FACTS

Plaintiff Ocean Semiconductor filed lawsuits against Defendants Mediatek Inc. and Mediatek USA Inc. (“Mediatek”), NVIDIA Corporation (“NVIDIA”), NXP USA, Inc. (“NXP”), Renesas Electronics Corporation and Renesas Electronics America, Inc. (“Renesas”), Silicon Laboratories Inc. (“Silicon Labs”), STMicroelectronics, Inc. (“STMicro”), and Western Digital Technologies, Inc. (“WD”) (collectively “Defendants”) in the United States District Court for the Western District of Texas. Ocean seeks a judgment that Defendants infringe U.S. Patent Nos.

6,660,651, 6,907,305, 6,725,402, 6,968,248, 7,080,330, 6,836,691, and 8,676,538 (collectively, the “Asserted Patents”).¹ Ocean Semiconductor seeks an award of damages from Defendants to compensate for the alleged patent infringement. The technology described and claimed in the Asserted Patents relates to, among other things, the use of a movable wafer stage, fault detection, process scheduling, and measurement of critical dimension and overlay in semiconductor manufacturing.

In response to Ocean Semiconductor’s infringement claims, Defendants have asserted defenses that include noninfringement, exhaustion, license and implied license. The documents requested in Attachment A are critical to Ocean Semiconductor’s ability to demonstrate Defendants’ infringement of the Asserted Patents and to properly and fully respond to Defendants’ defenses.

III. OFFER OF RECIPROCAL ASSISTANCE

The United States District Court for the Western District of Texas is willing to provide similar assistance to the Appropriate Judicial Authority of Taiwan. See 28 U.S.C. § 1782.

IV. REIMBURSEMENT FOR COSTS

This Court, through Plaintiff Ocean Semiconductor, is willing to reimburse the Appropriate Judicial Authority of Taiwan for costs and expenses incurred in executing these Letters Rogatory.

¹ Ocean also seeks a judgment against NXP and STMicro for infringement of U.S. Patent No. 6,420,097. However, Ocean is not presently seeking information from UMC related to those claims.
