Whether to grant the motion to quash the deposition subpoena for violations of Fed.

RELIEF REQUESTED

Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 45(d)(3)(A), KIOXIA America, Inc. ("KAI") respectfully requests that the Court quash the improper subpoena served by Ocean Semiconductor LLC ("Ocean") seeking documents and testimony in support of its case against MediaTek, Inc. and Mediatek USA, Inc., currently pending in the Federal District Court for the Western District of Texas (Civil Action No. 6:20-cv-01210-ADA). As explained below, Ocean's subpoena, on its face and by its terms, violates at least Fed. R. Civ. P. 45(d)(3)(A)(ii) and Fed. R. Civ. P. 45(d)(3)(A)(iv). KAI further requests that the Court enter an Order, as required by Fed. R. Civ. P. 45(d)(1), imposing an appropriate sanction against Ocean for its failure to take "reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense" on third-party KAI in the form of an award of attorneys' fees and costs.

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

On December 30, 2021, Ocean served KAI with the subpoena that is the subject of this motion to quash, as well as seven other subpoenas (which are the subject of concurrently-filed motions to quash in this Court and a motion to relate pursuant to Local Rule 3-12), in connection with a series of patent infringement lawsuits that Ocean has filed in the Western and Eastern Districts of Texas. The subpoena must be quashed for two independent reasons set forth in Fed. R. Civ. P. 45(d)(3)(A).

First, although KAI is a California corporation, headquartered in this District, and was served with the subpoena by Ocean in California, Ocean's subpoena seeks the production of documents, as well as production of a witness for deposition, nearly 3,000 miles away at the office of Ocean's counsel in the District of Delaware. This is a flagrant violation of the 100-mile limitation under Fed. R. Civ. P. 45(c)(1)(A) and (c)(2)(A) and a mandatory basis to quash the subpoena pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 45(d)(3)(A)(ii).

Second, as a third party with no interest or involvement in Ocean's litigation campaign, KAI must be protected under the Federal Rules from "undue burden." Here, the undue burden of Ocean's subpoena is self-evident from Ocean's 37-page demand, which seeks compliance by third-party KAI with 44 expansive requests for production regarding thousands of products accused in ten different underlying lawsuits (two of which are currently stayed), as well as other broad categories of information concerning KAI's relationships with other third-parties. Ocean has further demanded that KAI provide deposition testimony on 11 similarly overbroad topics. The vast overreach of Ocean's requests provides a wholly independent, and mandatory, basis under Fed. R. Civ. P. 45(d)(3)(A)(iv) for quashing Ocean's subpoena.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

Ocean launched a litigation campaign, primarily in Texas and entirely outside this District, alleging patent infringement against fifteen defendants across ten lawsuits.¹ In each lawsuit, Ocean asserts some combination of ten patents that it has acquired from third parties. With one exception,² Ocean's cases are in the infancy of discovery³ and two cases are stayed pending inter partes review of Ocean's patents.⁴

KAI is a California company headquartered in San Jose, California, with no involvement in Ocean's underlying litigation campaign. See Schuettenhelm Decl., ¶¶ 4-5, Exs. C and D. KAI is not a defendant or named party in any of Ocean's ten lawsuits. See id. ¶ 4.

 ²⁴ ² The sole exception is Ocean Semiconductor LLC v. Huawei Device USA Inc., et al., No. 4:20-cv ²⁵ ³ P91, pending in the Eastern District of Texas. In that case, a mere thirty-six documents have been filed with court and the discovery period closes on April 6, 2022 according to the current scheduling order. Id., Dkt. 22 (Aug. 3, 2021).

On December 22, 2021, Ocean's counsel caused eight subpoenas to be issued to KAI in connection with its lawsuits in the Western and Eastern District of Texas. See id. ¶2, Ex. A. Ocean then delayed service of those subpoenas, waiting until December 30, 2021, to effect service on KAI via its corporate agent in Glendale, California. See id., Ex. A. Each subpoena demanded document production by January 5, 2022, and a deposition on January 19, 2022. See id. The subpoenas each specified the office of Ocean's counsel in Wilmington, Delaware as the place of production and deposition. See id.

On January 3, 2022, KAI retained the undersigned counsel, who contacted Ocean's counsel seeking the courtesy of an extension of time to sort through Ocean's voluminous requests. See id., Ex. B (email from Doug Stewart, dated Jan. 4, 2022). In response, and despite having delayed service of the subpoena for eight days, leaving KAI only three business days to respond, Ocean's counsel sought to condition any extension of the subpoena's unreasonably short time frame on an agreement to produce documents by a date certain without objection.⁵ See id. (email from Joel Glazer, dated Jan. 4, 2022). KAI's counsel declined to assent to Ocean's proposed waiver of objections and mandatory production. See id. (email from Doug Stewart, dated Jan. 5, 2022). Ocean's counsel only relented and agreed to an unconditional nine-day extension of time until January 14 on the morning of January 5-the date set for compliance in the subpoena. See id. (email from Joel Glazer, dated Jan. 5, 2020).

A. Legal Standards

Fed. R. Civ. P. 45(d)(1) commands that "[a] party or attorney responsible for issuing and serving a subpoena must take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to the subpoena." Accordingly, "the court 'must protect a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer from significant expense resulting from compliance."" Personal Audio LLC v. Togi Ent'mt, Inc., No. 14-mc-80025 RS (NC), 2014 WL 1318921, at *1 (N.D. Cal. Mar. 31, 2014) (citing Fed. R. Civ. P. 45(d)(2)(B)(ii)). Consistent with this command, "[t]he Ninth Circuit has long held that nonparties subject to discovery requests deserve extra protection from the
