WACO DIVISION

GENTEX CORPORATION and INDIGO
TECHNOLOGIES, LLC,

Plaintiffs,

THALES VISIONIX, INC.,

Involuntary Plaintiff,

v.

META PLATFORMS, INC. and META
PLATFORMS TECHNOLOGIES, LLC,

Defendants.

Case No. 6:21-cv-00755-ADA

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

DEFENDANTS' UNOPPOSED MOTION TO SEAL DKT. 79

Meta Platforms, Inc. and Meta Platforms Technologies, LLC (collectively, “Meta” or “Defendants”) respectfully request that the Court seal Dkt. 79 (the “Public Order”).

The Public Order is a fully public version of the Court’s Order on Meta’s motion to transfer, originally filed under seal at Dkt. 76 (“Sealed Transfer Order”). Although the Sealed Transfer Order was signed on June 30, the public docket indicates that the Sealed Transfer Order was not entered until July 1, as shown in this highlighted screenshot of the public docket:

|            |                    |  |
|------------|--------------------|--|
| 06/30/2022 | 76 | Sealed Order. Signed by Judge Alan D Albright. (sm3) (Entered: 07/01/2022) |
|------------|--------------------|--|

This July 1 “entered” date is also confirmed by the automated ECF notice attached hereto as Exhibit 1, which states that the Sealed Transferred Order was “entered on 7/1/2022 at 7:44 AM CDT.” The Court’s Amended Standing Order Regarding Filing Documents Under Seal and Redacted Public Versions states: “The movant shall email a redacted version of the Court’s sealed order for publication within seven days after the Court enters the sealed order.”<sup>1</sup> Meta (the moving party) emailed a redacted version of the Sealed Transfer Order to the Court’s law clerk on July 8, which is within seven days after the Court entered the Sealed Transfer Order, such that the redactions were timely provided to the Court.

In view of Meta’s timely compliance with the Court’s Amended Standing Order, Meta believes that the redacted version that it emailed is the version that should be made public, not the fully unredacted version that was filed by the Court at Dkt. 79. The Public Order at Dkt. 79 contains information that Meta believes is confidential to it and its employees. Accordingly, to preserve the confidentiality of that information, Meta requests that the Court grant this motion to seal the Public Order at Dkt. 79.

Plaintiffs Gentex Corporation and Indigo Technologies, LLC do not oppose this motion.
