Experience

Hard IP LLC, A Patent Firm
Founder and Managing Principal
May 2016 - Present (8 years)
Greater New York City Area

On the heels of the Federal Circuit's recognition of a patent agent privilege, Hard IP is the first patent agent firm in the nation committed to making representation before the PTO, including both patent procurement and post-grant review, more affordable. Leading-edge companies have quickly recognized the advantages of working with Hard IP, which is taking the "Tech Alley" startup scene by storm.

My practice is focused on patent prosecution and contentious inter and ex parte post-grant and reissue work. I provide my clients with creative, cost-effective solutions, including patent portfolio design and strategic inter partes review (IPR/PGR/CBM) and ex parte reexamination tactics.

With a decade of patent experience, I have drafted and procured hundreds of patents for some of the world's leading technology companies, including Google, AT&T, Alcatel Lucent, Technicolor, Red Hat, Cypress Semiconductors, Quirky, Lily Robotics, and Siemens, among many others. I have experience in various hardware and software technologies, including peripheral devices and control methods, network security, medical devices, e-commerce and telecommunications.
