EXHIBIT A

Counterclaim Plaintiffs' Trial Witness List

Counterclaim Plaintiffs provide the following witness list identifying those witnesses they expect they will call, or may call, at trial, other than witnesses for rebuttal or impeachment purposes, as of May 21, 2021.

Below, Counterclaim Plaintiffs have listed in good faith the witnesses that they expect to call or may call to testify live or by prior testimony (including possibly by video) at the trial in this action. For prior deposition testimony that is expect to be, or may be, read or played into evidence, Counterclaim Plaintiffs have set forth separately those portions of designated testimony. (See Exhibit B).

Counterclaim Plaintiffs reserve the right to amend and update this list, to submit as appropriate, additions and/or deletions or revisions to this list as the pretrial and trial process evolves, including meeting and conferring with Counterclaim Defendants on outstanding trial management issues, receiving the Court's rulings on matters such as the parties' respective evidentiary issues, to remove witnesses that prove unnecessary, and to rebut unanticipated evidence presented at trial by Counterclaim Defendants. Counterclaim Plaintiffs reserve the right to call any witness on Counterclaim Defendants' witness list and any witness called by Counterclaim Defendants. Counterclaim Plaintiffs reserve the right to designate and present the prior deposition testimony of any witness that Counterclaim Defendants have indicated they expect to testify live at trial should such witnesses not come to trial, and furthermore Counterclaim Plaintiffs expressly reserve their right to introduce deposition testimony in accordance with Fed. R. Civ. P. 32(a)(3).

Counterclaim Plaintiffs also reserve the right to call any witness not listed here as may be necessary to authenticate a document to which an objection is made. Counterclaim Plaintiffs further reserve the right to call any person not listed here to counter surprise by any other party. In addition, Counterclaim Plaintiffs reserve the right to call any person not listed here as may be necessary to cure any objection to any exhibit.
