ORDER

This matter comes before the Court on PMP/Altria’s opposed “motion for scheduling order setting in limine/Daubert motion dates.” See Dkt. 769. Briefing these matters in an accelerated fashion without the benefit of the Court’s resolution of several collateral matters could result in the unnecessary expenditure of party and judicial resources. As such, the Court DENIES PMP/Altria’s motion (Dkt. 769), and DIRECTS the Parties to meet and confer in good faith to set briefing deadlines for Daubert and in limine motions that are generally consistent with the dates proposed by Reynolds in its opposition. See Dkt. 779, at 5.

It is SO ORDERED.
