The West Virginia State Bar is in receipt of your motion to admit counsel pro hac vice. You will be contacted if further information is needed. Decisions of granting or denying Pro Hac Vice motions are not made by The West Virginia State Bar, but by the tribunal to which the motion was submitted.

The West Virginia State Bar's Unlawful Practice of Law Committee wants to ensure that local counsel is aware of the requirements and responsibilities that he or she has when serving in this capacity. At the request of that Committee, below are links to Rule 8.0 of the Rules for Admission to the Practice of Law and a copy of the Unlawful Practice of Law Committee's Advisory Opinion 2010-001 which provide directives to both the local attorney and the attorney seeking admission pro hac vice regarding the obligations that each has. The Committee also suggests that you provide this information to visiting counsel.
